Greetings from the dam on fine winter Saturday.

Chris Campbell Memorial Rally:

The rally was held over the past weekend in a very cold and wet KZN. The start and finish venue was at the Wartburg Orion Hotel, which is a very pleasant hotel with a German flavour. The town of Wartburg is situated about 40 kms north east of Pietermaritzburg. The town itself is named after the castle in Eisenach where Dr Martin Luther translated the Bible into German and was settled in the 1850s by German families. Our trip down was uneventful. We stopped at the Green Lantern for lunch, and then went on to Nottingham Road Hotel for lunch. Needless to say our trip took six hours.

We nearly had a delayed start, as a truck had turned over about 8 kms into the route, so we all had to go farming into the cane fields to avoid it, but got to the start on time, where Alex Cowling parked Terry’s Alpha on Peter Wise’s foot. He was in some pain for the rest of the day. The route took about an hour and a half in the morning on very pleasant roads. Lunch was back at the hotel, and the afternoon section was not much longer, finishing again at the hotel. I am glad to report that all the cars made it safe and sound, despite Terry taking seven hours to get back, with an overheating engine.

The next event is the Combined Family Rally on the 15th of July, starting and ending at the Keg and Knight on Pretoria Road in Rynfield. Thanks to all that have already entered. Please guys, we all agree that we need to do something to keep our sport alive, and with this rally we will be doing something different, as it is a non-championship event without your entries we cannot host these events.

Class B: Llewellyn Barnard / Joe Smith (overall winner)

Soweto

The England rugby squad took time out to visit an orphanage in Soweto.

'It was heart-breaking to see their sad little faces with no hope,' said Sipho, aged six.

Unloved and Unwanted

I lost my job last night at the Lifeline Crisis Centre. Our most unpopular politician rang to say that he was lying on the railway track and a train was rapidly approaching.

Like I was taught, I told him to remain calm and stay on the line.

Credit Suisse

"The market is currently like a strapless bra; half of us are wondering what is holding it up and the other half is waiting for it to drop so they can grab the opportunity with both hands".

Jewish Comedians

I just got back from a pleasure trip. I took my mother-in-law to the airport.

I've been in love with the same woman for 49 years! If my wife ever finds out, she'll kill me!

Someone stole all my credit cards but I won't be reporting it. The thief spends less than my wife did.

We always hold hands. If I let go, she shops.

My wife and I went to a hotel where we got a waterbed. My wife called it the Dead Sea.

She was at the beauty shop for two hours. That was only for the estimate. She got a mudpack and looked great for two days. Then the mud fell off.

The Doctor gave a man six months to live... The man couldn't pay his bill so the doctor gave him another six months.

The Doctor called Mrs. Cohen saying, "Mrs. Cohen, your check came back.” Mrs. Cohen answered, “So did my arthritis!”

Doctor: “You'll live to be 60!”
Patient: "I am 60!"
Doctor: “See! What did I tell you?”

A drunk was in front of a judge. The judge says, “You've been brought here for drinking.” The drunk says “Okay, let's get started.”

There is a big controversy on the Jewish view of when life begins....

In Jewish tradition, the foetus is not considered viable until it graduates from medical school.

A Jewish boy comes home from school and tells his mother he has a part in the play.
She asks, “What part is it?”
The boy says, "I play the part of the Jewish husband.”
The mother scowls and says, "Go back and tell the teacher you want a speaking part."

Q: Why are Jewish men circumcised?
A: Because Jewish women don't like anything that isn't 20% off!
